RAIL

Portland House is within walking distance from Birmingham International train station. Exit the station concourse either from the platforms or from the airport via the shuttle at ground level. Portland House can be seen on the right about 150 yards away.

Safest access is via the pavement on the left hand side of the road, crossing to the building either just after the station car park to access the walkthrough to the building or by crossing the road further down just before the little roundabout.
