Members Advice Note (20th May 2020) – CPD During COVID19

With the ongoing disruption to the face-to-face conferences, courses and seminars likely to continue this year, including the decision to run the SoRSA annual conference as a virtual event, the SoRSA committee is aware that members may again face challenges in completing their CPD for the year 2021. A working group was formed last year to produce this advice note to provide a number of sources for self-learning that could help guide members to achieve their CPD. This note has been updated to reflect the current situation and available CPD opportunities. Following issue of the previous note, many online webinars have been hosted (and recorded) that are now available to view. The source websites have now been included for these as opposed to links to the events.

This note has been brought up to date as much as possible, however it is understandable that some links may be taken down over time. If a link doesn't work, please get in touch with the committee and we will correct this.

Home Learning

As with previous years, SoRSA will consider self-learning as acceptable CPD, so long as sufficient learning has been demonstrated. Below are example sources for self-learning that members could consider.
