

CIHT East of England Conference 2022 The Road to Zero Carbon

Date and location: Thursday 9th June (Moller Centre, Churchill College, Storey's Way, Cambridge, CB3 0DE)

Bookings: <https://www.ciht.org.uk/event/ciht-east-of-england-conference-2022-ee09062022/>

09:00 Registration, refreshments and networking

Morning session

09:30	CIHT Presidential Address	Deborah Sims, CIHT President
09:45	Developing Climate Literacy	Andrew Crudgington, Climate Change Associate, CIHT
10.10	Making Plans for a Net Zero Transport System in the East of England region	Naomi Green, Managing Director, England's Economic Heartland Andrew Summers, Strategic Director, Transport East

10:40 Refreshments and networking

11:05	Behavioural Change	Glenn Lyons, Professor of Future Mobility, University of West of England
11:30	The role of active travel in a low carbon future – lessons learned from WSP projects	Tom Holcroft, Associate Director, WSP
12:00	The road to net zero for highway construction	Tim Smith, Regional Technical Manager, Tarmac

12:30 Lunch and networking

Afternoon Session

13:30	How places can unlock private finance to accelerate Net Zero	Athanasios Grammatikopoulos, Climate Action Lead, Connected Places Catapult
-------	--	---

Sponsored By:

13:55	Designing the UK's first carbon neutral road improvement project	Sam Schofield, Head of Environment and Sustainability, Amey David Cudworth, Technical Director (Pavements), Amey
14:20	Micheldever Recycling Facility – Reuse of highway waste	Ed Godsiffe, Head of Sustainability, Milestone Infrastructure Stuart Gready, Managing Director, OCL Regeneration

14:45 Refreshments and networking

15:00	Highways decarbonisation with Lancashire County Council	John Turpin, Director for Digital Management, Atkins
15:30	Protecting and enhancing biodiversity on the highway	Terry Wilkinson, Highways Application Engineer, Aco Technologies
16:00	Summary and close	CIHT East of England Chair

Sponsored By:

