

CIHT Yorkshire and the Humber Award for Emerging Professional of the Year 2025

This award recognises an emerging professional who is a high achiever in our industry. The judges are looking for the person that has best demonstrated a positive impact in the field of highways or transportation in the Yorkshire and the Humber region and who is making an exceptional contribution to their workplace. The aim of the Award is to celebrate individual excellence in transportation planning and/or civil engineering within the highways or transportation sector.

Criteria for the award

- Commitment: applicants need to demonstrate their commitment to personal development and progression and to the industry.
- Contribution: applicants need to show they have made an outstanding contribution to their workplace – in particular, areas or projects where they have exceeded expectations and made a positive impact on their business or a project. For example on sustainability, inclusivity, equality, innovation, safety and diversity. Particular credit will be given to those applicants whose work has contributed and supported the delivery of a decarbonised transport system.
- Success: applicants need to demonstrate inspirational levels of achievement and attainment, and that they have made an impact on their organisation or their role in any project and making reference to any attributes you display that point to future leadership and success.

Eligibility

The applicant must:

- Be in full time employment in the highways or transportation sector within the Yorkshire and the Humber Region;
- Have less than 10 years experience in the highways or transportation sector
- Must be a member of CIHT: <https://www.ciht.org.uk/become-a-member/ciht-membership-for-individuals/>

Judging

An independent panel of judges will seek evidence of excellence in the criteria and determine which nomination to support for the Emerging Professional of the Year Award.

Entries failing to meet the specified criteria or which are not submitted in the requested format will not be considered.

Entries & Submissions

The entry should take the form of a maximum 1,000 word submission or a 3 minute video stating details of the entrant in accordance with the above criteria.
