

CIHT East of England Region

Young Professional of the Year 2019

“The Mike Sharpe Award”

Criterion

The award is given to a young person, less than 30 years of age and based in the East of England, who has made a significant contribution to the profession. Through the development or sharing of knowledge, through their role on a project anywhere in the world, and/or through the promotion of the profession. The aim of the Award is to celebrate individual excellence within the highways and transportation field.

Categories

The award will have two categories; one for Apprentices and a second for Graduates with each category receiving a separate award.

Eligibility

Nominations are invited either from individuals themselves or from others who wish to propose an individual for the award. The nominee must be 30 years of age or under on 28th February 2019.

Submission

The nomination can be made in any suitable media of authors choice (be that video, PowerPoint, written etc). The length in which ever format should be no longer than 5 minutes to view or read (written suggested no more than 1,000 words). The submission (or link to it) should be submitted by e-mail to eastofengland@ciht.org.uk by 28th February 2019.

An independent panel of judges with extensive experience in the industry will consider all the nominations and select the winning entry.

Prizes

The winners will be announced at the CIHT East of England Dinner on the 11th of May at the Doubletree by Hilton Cambridge. Winners of the Award will have details published in a subsequent issue of Transportation Professional.

The winning entrant will be awarded a certificate and cash prize of £250 for each category.
