

TPP - Approved Master's Degrees

Candidates who have attained the one of following Master's degrees are able to follow the standard route to the TPP qualification without submitting a Portfolio of Technical Knowledge and, after gaining work experience (usually about five years), proceed to the preparation and submission of a Portfolio of Evidence and attend a Professional Review Interview:

Approval is current unless otherwise stated.

Cardiff University

- MSc Transport and Planning

Imperial College London and University College London

- MSc Transport (approved to 2017)
- MSc Transport and Business Management (approved to 2017)
- MSc Transport and Sustainable Development (approved to 2017)

The University of Leeds

- MSc Sustainability in Transport
- MSc Transport Planning and Engineering*
- MSc Transport Planning
- MSc Transport Planning and Environment
- MA Transport Economics

(*from 2015 in-take, only approved if candidates have completed Module TRAN5112M Sustainable Land Use and Transport Planning and TRAN517M Analysing Transport and Society)

Loughborough University

- MSc Transport Policy and Business Management (approved to 2013)
- MSc Sustainable Transport and Travel Planning (approved to 2011)

Napier University

- MSc Transport Planning and Engineering

Newcastle University

- MSc Transport Engineering and Operations (approved to 2012)
- MSc Transportation Planning and Policy (approved to 2012)
- MSc Transport and Business Management (approved to 2012)
- MSc Transport and the Environment (approved to 2012)
- MSc Intelligent Transport Systems and Intelligent Mobility (approved to 2012)
- MSc Transport Planning and Engineering (approved to 2017)
- MSc Transport Planning and Intelligent Transport Systems (approved to 2017)

- MSc Transport Planning and Business Management (approved to 2017)
- MSc Transport Planning and the Environment (approved to 2017)

Oxford Brookes University

- MSc Transport Planning (approved to 2011)

University of Salford

- MSc Transport Engineering and Planning

Sheffield Hallam University

- MSc. Transport Planning & Management

University of Southampton

- MSc Transportation Planning and Engineering

University of Surrey

- MSc. Transport Planning & Practice

(only approved if candidates have completed the four compulsory modules and in addition have completed units ENGM153 and ENGM166)

University of Westminster

- MSc Transport Planning and Management

UWE Bristol

- MSc. Transport Planning
- MSc Transport Engineering and Planning