

Awards

Transport Planning Award 2024

With a focus on sustainability, the Transport Planning award is to recognise and acknowledge activity within our region across the highways and transportation sector and is awarded to an organisation, highway authority or joint commission, that has implemented a successful scheme applying impactful, innovative, and transformative activities leading the sector towards a highly resilient, sustainable, and low-carbon future.

The award recognises the value of transport planning in achieving positive outcomes for the benefit of the public, in creating new communities and benefiting both the community's safety and the local environment to reduce adverse impacts of transport on communities. Your entry will be judged on both the qualitative and quantitative impact and it will be important that you cover the design, use, and safety of the scheme.

Entries must clearly explain how the submission meets the criteria specified.

Judging Criteria for the Award:

- How has the problem been addressed? (10)
- Innovation or best-in-class use of standards (15)
- Results or benefits (statistics, evidence) (15)
- Other benefits above & beyond the business case (e.g., road safety, modal shift, net zero) (10)
- Quality of submission (5)
- Any additional attributes, please consider the following examples (10):
 - Value for money
 - Efficiencies, cost savings
 - Potential for wider implementation
 - Implementation (e.g., training, communications, development of transport planners etc.)
 - Alignment with strategy e.g., CIHT Strategy 2022+
 - Etc.

How to enter

To enter this award please complete an Entry Form and provide a 1,000-word maximum (not including tables, figures etc.) supporting document on your entered project, and return it to regions@ciht.org.uk

Please ensure that you have read the Important Submission Information before submitting your entry. The deadline for entries is 23:59 on Friday 1st March 2024. Shortlisted entries will be notified in September. Winners will be announced at the CIHT EM Awards Dinner at the Nottingham Belfry Hotel on the evening of Thursday 25th April 2024 and details published through a variety of media platforms.