Women's Achievement Award 2025

CIHT East Midlands Committee is proud to promote this Award category which will celebrate and showcase women's achievements in the highways and transportation sector in the East Midlands region.

This Award recognises all the remarkable women who are carrying out outstanding work in the field of highways and transportation not just on projects but overall, shaping the lives around us.

Our eligibility criteria are any woman who has made:

- A significant contribution to the highways and transportation sector.
  - A positive impact or influence on your organisation, field and/or society

Entries must clearly explain how the submission meets the criteria specified.

Judging Criteria for the Award:

- Highways and Transportation Industry: Describe the nominee's contributions and their positive impact on the industry. Consider innovations, improvements, or significant projects they have been involved in. (20%)
- Values and Behaviour Describe the values and behaviours that the nominee exhibits which make them stand out. Consider qualities such as integrity, dedication, innovation, collaboration, and leadership (20%)
- Influence In Your Organisation: Explain how the nominee has positively influenced your organisation. This could include leadership, teamwork, project success, or other notable contributions. (20%)
- Additional Positive Impacts: Highlight any additional positive impacts the nominee has made in other areas, such as community involvement, environmental sustainability, or industry advocacy (20%)
- Reasons for Shortlisting Explain why you believe the nominee should be shortlisted for their achievements in the highways and transportation sector. Focus on their standout accomplishments, the significance of their contributions, and the overall impact of their work. (20%)
